The United States hereby moves this Court, for good cause shown, to file in camera and seal the Government's Second Status Report Re: Defendant's Medical Treatment.

The second status report not only contains private information regarding defendant's health, but it also contains the scheduling information for defendant's medical appointment. For security purposes, it is imperative that the date and time of defendant's medical appointments outside of Santa Rita Jail be kept secret from the general public as well as defendant himself. Thus, the government respectfully requests that this Court grants the government's application to
